

Memoir 2: The Sequel (The Binks Memoirs)

Picking up shortly after the conclusion of his first memoir, Binks: The Bizarre Account of Zachary Peter Jarrett, the tongue-in-cheek titled Memoir 2: The Sequel tells the tale of Zachary's life as a mentally ill adult living with his brother, a recovering/sometimes abusing addict named Benjamin. The subject matter ranges from drug abuse to isolation and despair, and in the end touches on a subject not all too unfamiliar to most: the search for a perfect father...Zachary received an honorable mention in the 2001 Writers Eye contest, he was the winner of the 2004 Second Street Gallery Young Writers competition, was published in the 21st edition of an anthology called Poets Domain in 2005, and more recently, in 2009, he was a finalist in the First Amendment Writes poetry and songwriting competition in Charlottesville Virginia which aired on local television. Renowned author Rita Mae Brown presided over this contest as one of the judges and though she wasn't present for the award ceremony she said of his poem in her notes that his entry, Syllabic Waffles, had Real internal rhythm married to condensed venom. Zachary has published several books on Amazon through their KDP and Createspace programs, most notable of which are his first memoir; titled Binks: The Bizarre Account of Zachary Peter Jarrett, a collection of poetry titled The Black Book, and a collection of short stories titled The Winds from Behind Me.
