

The Heart of A Boy (Cuore) (Full Version in Chinese and English)

This selected series in both Chinese and English has never been adapted or deleted but matched with authoritative notes and exquisite illustrations in some parts. People shall read original texts if they expect to learn a foreign language and read a good book. And classics passed along through generations belong to such high-level books, but there are both true and false ones. When reading books in the beginning, we often encounter some editions that are written by famous authors but adapted or rewritten. Although such editions will help you understand basic plots, what you have got is just the surface. Have you ever read that classic for real?
