

Clean and Serene: Scriptural Meditations for Recovery

This book was written by one who knows the struggle and battle facing many who deal with addiction. Clean and Serene is designed to be one of the tools for those in the process of recovery and healing from addiction. The author integrates scripture with the spiritual principles of support groups such as Alcoholics Anonymous. Inside you will find meditations that will inspire, challenge, and encourage people at any state of recovery. Minister Lloyd Bell has received his Masters degree in Addiction Counseling from Liberty University and is a recovering addict of 13 years. He has experienced the horrors and hopelessness of addiction. He understands what it means to be caught in the grips of active addiction. This book is his attempt to serve those who are still suffering or are in the time of need. This tool can also be used in a support group setting.
