

Mental Arithmetic: Book 3 (Ginn home learning)

Aimed at developing childrens fluency in mental calculations, this is the third in the mental arithmetic Home Learning series. It allows parents to work with their children on their numeracy skills, at home. As well as being geared towards Key Stage 2 of the National Curriculum, it is also suitable for the Scottish and Northern Ireland curriculum. Other subjects in the Home Learning series include numbers and spelling. The books are suitable for 6-11 year olds.
